

Terms of Use

These Terms of Use apply to access to and participation in the Texas A&M University, College Station – Office of Undergraduate Recruitment Virtual Session by you and your child or ward (“your student”). The Virtual Session is provided by Undergraduate Recruitment as a resource for high school students exploring Texas A&M University.

By accessing the Virtual Session, you agree:

- That the Virtual Session is a voluntary activity, and may be terminated by either party – Texas A&M University or you - at any time and without any liability to either party;
- All students must have access to a reliable Internet connection, an email account to register for the session prior to the virtual event, and a laptop or computer with a working video camera, microphone, mouse, and keyboard;
- That you accept the risks associated with transmitting information over the Internet and using telecommunications technologies (including electronic tampering and unauthorized access by third parties), and that you will only use a computer or device that you know is safe and, at a minimum, has a firewall, anti-virus software installed, is password protected, and accesses the Internet through a private, password-protected connection when participating in the Virtual Session;
- That participation in the Virtual Session will require your student to use third-party products or services that are not operated or controlled by Texas A&M University (“Third Party Services”), and that use of those Third Party Services will be governed solely by the terms applicable to those Third Party Services as agreed upon between you and the providers of the Third Party Services;
- That Texas A&M University does not endorse or support, is not responsible for, and disclaims all liability as to the privacy practices, data security processes, and other policies or practices of Third Party Services;
- To be, and to ensure that your student is, respectful to Office of Undergraduate Recruitment personnel and other Virtual Camp participants, and to not, and to ensure that your student does not, defame, abuse, harass, stalk, threaten, or otherwise violate the legal rights of Texas A&M University, its personnel, or other Virtual Session participants;
- To comply with copyright and other intellectual property laws pertaining to files, images, software, and other protected material that may be used or referenced during the Virtual Session;
- To monitor your student’s participation in the Virtual Session and to determine whether the Virtual Camp is beneficial to and appropriate for your student;
- That only you and your student may participate in Virtual Session;
- That you will not record Virtual Sessions or share any materials that may be used or referenced during the Virtual Session;
- That information provided by you about you and your student is accurate and does not misrepresent the identity of you or your student;
- That information provided by you about you and your student may be disclosed to Texas A&M University employees, volunteers, and contractors for the purposes of providing the Virtual Camp;
- That Texas A&M University may change the content of the Virtual Session at any time without notice;

- That any Virtual Session volunteers will be serving as direct service volunteers to Texas A&M University as described in Texas Education Code § 51.937;
- That Texas A&M University may use your student's name, likeness (still or moving), and words (written or spoken) for purposes related to the mission of Texas A&M University, including publicity, marketing, and promotion of Texas A&M University, in any medium;
- That you hereby waive, covenant not to sue, and agree to indemnify and defend Office of Undergraduate Recruitment, Texas A&M University, College Station, The Texas A&M University System and its Board of Regents, and their members, officers, agents, volunteers, and employees ("releasees") from any and all liabilities, claims, demands, injuries, or damages, including court costs and attorneys' fees and expenses, that you or your student may sustain or inflict while participating in the Virtual Session, including injuries sustained as a result of the sole, joint, or concurrent negligence, gross negligence, negligence per se, statutory fault, intentional torts, or strict liability of releasees; and
- That you have the legal right as parent or guardian to register your student for the Virtual Session.

We hope you find the Virtual Session useful and encourage suggestions and comments. Please report any inappropriate behavior by Virtual Session personnel to AGAC@tamu.edu.

Texas A&M University does not knowingly collect personally identifiable information from children under the age of 13. If you are under the age of 13, please do not provide your contact information or any other personally identifiable information to Texas A&M University. If you are the parent or legal guardian of someone under the age of 13 who may have provided Texas A&M University with information without your knowledge or consent, please contact AGAC@tamu.edu to have this information removed.

To view, amend, or delete any information provided by you about you or your child, please contact AGAC@tamu.edu.

By accessing or participating in the Virtual Session, you agree to be bound to these Terms of Use. If you do not agree to all of these Terms of Use, do not access or participate in the Virtual Session.